

I rely on weather and road reports on my XM radio while delivering goods coast the coast and border to border. Please resist all attempts to limit broadcast of these valuable reports on XM radio. I do not have the wherewithall to find local stations to give these reports in the various cities where I deliver goods. Thank you. Allen Eastman